DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed January 4, 2008 and the remarks presented therewith have been carefully considered. However, they are not deemed to be fully persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 9, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nam et al. (5,765,889).

The patent to Nam et al. shows a gripper comprising two parallel fingers (12) each having a vacuum line (13) that terminates in a raised outlet (14). The Nam et al. gripper also contains three pins (20) extending upwardly from the gripper (see Figs. 2A and 2B). It is pointed out that the Nam et al. gripper contains all of the structural limitations as set forth in the above claims of the instant application which recite a “gripper”. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., a film for bearing a wafer that is stretched onto a frame) are not part of the “gripper” itself but are directed to the intended use of the gripper. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). In other words, the Nam et al. gripper is capable of handling certain sized frames having a film stretched thereon depending on the shape of the frame/film.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nam et al. in view of Kim et al. (6,068,316).

The patent to Nam et al. was presented above in section 2 and while its finger ends appear to be tapered, they are not specifically described as being flattened as is called for in claim 11 of the instant application.

However, the Kim et al. patent shows a gripper substantially similar to the Nam et al. device, but the Kim et al. fingers are flattened at their distal ends (see Fig. 7).

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to flatten the tips of the Nam et al. fingers as taught by Kim et al. in order to allow the fingers to better fit between closely spaced adjacent wafers in a cassette.

Drawings

5. The corrected drawings were received on 1/4/08. These drawings are approved by the examiner.

Election/Restrictions

6. This application contains claims 4-8 drawn to an invention nonelected without traverse in the reply filed on 9/14/07. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
